JOINT PRETRIAL STIPULATION

I. AGREED FACTS:

1. In or about 1991, Plaintiff, Kevin Wagner (“Wagner”) was elected to the position of Constable for Bristol Township.
 2. Wagner was re-elected as Constable in 1997 and has served in that capacity continuously until the present time.
 3. In December of 2001, Wagner submitted an application with Defendant Bristol Township (“Defendant Township”) for the position of Supervisor of the Public Works Department.
 4. After interviewing with Suzanne Newsome and Steve McClain, Wagner was offered and did accept the Supervisor position on or about January 3, 2002.
 5. In December of 2001, the Bristol Township Council (“Council”) adopted a budget for the year 2002.

6. Thereafter, on January 7, 2002, newly elected Council members were sworn in, including, Karen Lipsack (“Lipsack”), John Monahan (“Monahan”), Kenneth Worthington (“Worthington”), and Kenneth Balcom (“Balcom”).

_____7. William Tuthill (“Tuthill”), the remaining Council member, was a member of the Council when the original 2002 budget was approved. _

8. Immediately after being sworn in, Lipsack moved to reopen Defendant Township’s budget and further moved to freeze all hiring made prior to December 31, 2001.

9. This directly affected Wagner because his position was funded under the 2002 budget which was adopted in December of 2001.

10. Lipsack, Monahan, and Tuthill voted in favor of Lipsack’s motion, while Balcom and Worthington voted no.

11. In or about January of 2002, Tuthill, in addition to serving as President of the Council, served as a Deputy Constable under Constable William Keyser (“Keyser”).

12. On February 1, 2002, the Council reconvened to review the 2002 budget.

13. During the February 1, 2002 Council meeting, Mayor Fenton stated that the original 2002 budget “was a good, well-organized budget with no tax increases and followed the recommendations of the Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development Report.”

14. During the February 1, 2002 Council meeting, Balcom made a motion to approve the 2002 budget as originally adopted in December of 2001. Balcom's motion failed by a vote of 3-2 as Lipsack, Monahan, and Tuthill all voted against said motion.

15. During the February 1, 2002 Council meeting, Lipsack moved to eliminate funding for Wagner's Superintendent position. Lipsack's motion was approved by a vote of 3-2; again, Lipsack, Monahan, and Tuthill all voted in favor of said motion.

16. At the close of the February 1, 2002 Council meeting, Lipsack's motion to advertise and place the amended budget on public display was approved by a vote of 3-2 and was supported by Lipsack, Monahan, and Tuthill.

17. During the February 15, 2002 Council meeting, Lipsack moved to adopt the 2002 budget amendments, which included the removal of funding for Wagner's Supervisor position. Lipsack, Monahan, and Tuthill voted in favor of adopting the amendments, while Balcom voted against approval of the amendments.

18. In addition to removing funding for Wagner's Supervisor position, the new budget removed funding for the position of Police Liasion, then held by retired police officer Joseph Fehn ("Fehn").

19. On February 19, 2002, Mayor Fenton vetoed the newly approved budget, which effectively returned the budget to its original form as of December of 2001.

20. The funding for Fehn's position was reinstated, thereby leaving Wagner as the only employee affected by the new budget. Nevertheless, Wagner's position was never funded and he was in effect removed as Supervisor.

II. DISPUTED FACTS:

A. Plaintiff's Disputed Facts:

1. Prior to the January 7, 2002 meeting, Lipsack discussed her motion to reopen the budget and her motion to suspend all recent hiring decisions with both Monahan and Tuthill.

2. The Township Council was divided into two separate political factions of the local democratic party. Those who supported Constable William Keyser included Lipsack, Monahan, and Tuthill. Those council persons who supported Mayor Fenton included Worthington and Balcom.

3. Council members typically align their voting based upon their membership in the aforesaid political factions.

4. Tuthill believed that Wagner would not support the re-election of Constable Keyser, and in the event that Keyser was not re-elected, Tuthill would lose his position as Deputy Constable.

5. In January of 2002, shortly after Wagner assumed the position of Supervisor, Mayor Fenton met with Wagner and informed him that Tuthill had unlawfully threatened to eliminate budget funding for Wagner's Supervisor position unless Wagner agreed not to seek re-election as a Constable.

6. During said conversation with Mayor Fenton, Wagner told Fenton that he would not accede to Tuthill's unlawful threats and that he would not resign as Constable.

7. Immediately following the February 1, 2002 Council meeting, Tuthill approached Donald Lorady (“Lorady”) and John Cronon (“Cronon”) and told them that if Wagner resigned his Constable position, he would ensure that Lorady would replace Wagner as Constable.

8. On February 1, 2002, Tuthill told Wagner in the presence of Cronon, Joseph Pollio (“Pollio”), and Ronald Jamieson (“Jamieson”), that he intended to eliminate the funding for Wagner’s Supervisor position unless he resigned as Constable.

9. Tuthill further informed Wagner that Lipsack and Monahan agreed to vote in favor of eliminating Wagner’s Supervisor position from the Township’s budget. Once again, Wagner refused to accede to Tuthill’s illegal demands that he resign as Constable and not run for re-election.
